Eighth Annual Statewide Conference for Women in the Trades

Women Building California is a statewide conference for women who work in construction or are interested in exploring a construction career. We hope to bring more women into the trades, and offer them skills, resources, and support to thrive in these careers through retirement.

The conference includes workshops speakers, caucuses by trade, networking entertainment, and much more.

Sponsored by State Building and Construction Trades Council of California in collaboration with Tradeswomen, Inc. and with tradeswomen from unions and apprenticeship programs across Southern California

More ways to participate!

Video: Are you an established or aspiring video maker or performance artist? Here's your chance to showcase your stuff. We're soliciting short (1-2 minute) videos about working in the trades to show during the conference. All videos must be received on disc by April 21 at the Building Trades' Sacramento office. For more info, e-mail dchaplan@sbctc.org.

Art: Are you an artist with tradeswomen-related art to display? We'd love to see it! E-mail dchaplan@sbctc.org to make arrangements.

Spoken Word: We're looking for poets and spoken word artists to perform at the conference. If that's you, contact dchaplan@sbctc.org.

Union Banners: Bring your union banner! If you have a stand, you can keep the banner up for display in the conference hall. For banners that are not self-standing, we'll have a "banner parade."
